

The Oklahoma City Chapter of the Federal Bar Association

Proudly Presents

2015 FEDERAL PRACTICE SERIES -- PART ONE
WHAT EVERY CIVIL LAWYER SHOULD KNOW ABOUT CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

August 3, 2015, 11:45 – 1:30pm

Federal Courthouse [Jury Assembly Room]

United States Magistrate Judge Shon T. Erwin

Mark Yancey (Asst. United States Attorney)

Tony Lacy (Asst. Federal Public Defender)

Matt Kane (Ryan Whaley firm and CJA panel member)

Free for FBA members. If you are not currently a member of the FBA, please ask about the benefits of membership, including but not limited to this free CLE opportunity. Fees for non-members is $35 per session. To RSVP please contact James Warner at jwarner@holladaychilton.com or by phone at (405) 236-2343, no later than July 29, 2015. Attendees can pay in advance by sending a check (made payable to the Federal Bar Association) to James Warner at 204 N. Robinson Ave, Suite 1550, Oklahoma City, OK 73102. Payment will also be accepted at the door. Attendees are invited to bring their own lunches.

This program is the first of four sessions which address practice in the Western District of Oklahoma. Each session will include perspectives from one or more members of the bench. It is anticipated that each session will provide 1.5 hours of CLE. For any FBA member attending all four sessions, the fee for the Tenth Circuit Year in Review program (typically providing six or more hours of CLE) will be waived, thereby allowing the participant to receive his or her entire year of CLE credit at no charge. Details for Parts 2-4 will follow later this summer.